Mystery Lotto Jackpot Winner In Hammersmith And Fulham

National Lottery players in the Hammersmith and Fulham area are being urged to check their tickets as a Lotto jackpot prize worth a fabulous £390,591 has still not been claimed.

The ticket, which matched all six numbers, was bought for the Lotto draw on Saturday 25 March 2006. The mystery ticket-holder has until 5.30pm on 21 September 2006 to come forward with the winning ticket and make their claim. The winning numbers for the Lotto draw on 25 March were 2, 6, 10, 17, 29 and 30.

If no-one comes forward with the winning ticket before the prize claim deadline, then the prize money, plus all the interest generated, will go to the Good Causes – adding to the £18 billion already raised through sales of lottery tickets over the last 11 years.

This has not been the only outstanding prize in the Hammersmith and Fulham area. Last year a Lotto jackpot ticket worth £684,008, bought for the draw 23 April 2005, was not claimed before the 20 October 2005 deadline and went to the Good Causes.

A National Lottery spokesperson said: “We are desperate to find the lucky ticket-holder this time and unite them with their winnings as it will certainly change their lives. We are urging everyone to check their tickets again and look in the pockets of their coats, in their wallets, in bags and down the back of the sofa. We have the champagne on ice and our fingers crossed!”
