£192k Awaits Mystery Newcastle Winner

National Lottery players in the Newcastle-upon-Tyne area are being urged to check and double-check their old Lotto Extra tickets, as someone is sitting on an amazing £192,342 prize and may not even know it.

The search is now on to locate the owner of the winning ticket who matched five numbers in the last ever Lotto Extra draw on Saturday 8 July 2006 – the winning numbers for that draw were: 10, 17, 35, 42, 46 and 49. The lucky ticket-holder has until 5.30pm on 4 January 2007 to come forward and make their claim. As nobody matched all six numbers to win the £3,269,813 jackpot in the final Lotto Extra draw on Saturday 8 July 2006, the prize was shared between everyone on the next prize level, who matched five numbers instead.

If no-one comes forward with the winning ticket before the prize claim deadline, then the prize money, plus all the interest generated, will go to the Good Causes – adding to the £18.6 billion already raised through sales of lottery tickets since the launch of The National Lottery® in November 1994.

A National Lottery spokesperson said: “We’re desperate to find this ticket-holder and unite them with their winnings – this life-enhancing prize could really help to make a few dreams reality for someone out there.

“We’re urging everyone to check their old tickets again or look anywhere that missing ticket could be hiding. Try checking in the pockets of clothing, in wallets, bags and down the back of the sofa – someone out there could literally be sitting on a fortune! We have the champagne on ice and our fingers crossed that the lucky winner comes forward to claim their prize in time.”

To jog Lotto players’ memories, on 8 July, Heading South, starring Charlotte Rampling and Karen Young, had just opened at the cinema – while Shakira was topping the charts with Hips Don’t Lie.
