£142k Up For Grabs In Welwyn And Stevenage

National Lottery players in the Welwyn and Stevenage area of Hertfordshire are being urged to check and double-check their old tickets, as an amazing £142,035 Lotto prize remains unclaimed.

The search is now on to locate the owner of the winning ticket, who matched five numbers plus the bonus ball on Saturday 25 November 2006. The winning Lotto numbers on that date were 4, 7, 31, 38, 44, 48, and the bonus number was 1. The lucky ticket-holder has until 5.30pm on 24 May 2007 to come forward and make their claim.

If no-one comes forward with the winning ticket before the prize claim deadline expires, then the prize money, plus all the interest it has generated, will go to the Good Causes. This will add to the £19 billion already raised through sales of lottery tickets in the 12 years since The National Lottery® launched in November 1994.

A National Lottery spokesperson said: "We're desperate to find this mystery ticket-holder and unite them with their winnings – this life-enhancing prize could really help to make this Christmas one to remember. We're urging everyone to check their old tickets again or look anywhere a missing Lotto ticket could be hiding.

"Try checking in the pockets of clothing, in wallets, bags and down the back of the sofa – someone out there could literally be sitting on a fortune! We have the champagne on ice and our fingers crossed that the lucky winner comes forward to claim their win."

To jog Lotto players' memories, on 25 November 2006, The Santa Clause 3 starring Tim Allen, was showing at cinemas across the country, while Akon and Eminem were topping the chats with Smack That.
