Mystery Winner In Richmond-upon-Thames Is Missing Out On £52k Lotto Prize

National Lottery players in the Richmond-upon-Thames are being urged to check their old tickets as someone is sitting on a £52,197 Lotto fortune and may not even know it.

The search is now on to locate the owner of a winning ticket who matched five main numbers and the bonus ball in the Lotto draw on Saturday 14 January 2006. The winning Lotto numbers for that draw were 4, 8, 16, 23, 28, 47, and bonus ball, 34. The lucky ticket-holder has until 5.30pm on 13 July 2006 to come forward and make their claim.

If no-one comes forward with the winning ticket before the prize claim deadline, then the prize money, plus all the interest generated, will go to the Good Causes – adding to the £18 billion already raised through sales of lottery tickets over the last 11 years.

This is not the first time that a Lotto prize has not been claimed in the Richmond-upon-Thames area. Last year, a Lotto jackpot prize worth £3,987,470 from the draw on 1 January 2005 remained unclaimed by the 30 June deadline, so the prize money and all the interest it generated went to the Good Causes.

A National Lottery spokesperson said: “We are desperate to find this ticket-holder and unite them with their winnings as it will certainly change their lives. They could carry out a range of home improvements, take the luxury holiday they have so far only been able to dream of, buy a top of the range car or even have a shopping spending spree.

“We are urging everyone to check their tickets again and look in the pockets of their winter coats, in their wallets, in bags and down the back of the sofa. We have the champagne on ice and our fingers crossed!”

To jog Lotto players' memories, on 15 January 2006, Rob Marshall's new film, Memoirs of a Geisha, had just opened at the cinema – while X Factor winner Shayne Ward was topping the charts with That's My Goal. Closer to home audiences at the Orange Tree Theatre Royal were enjoying a performance of a Restoration comedy, A Journey to London.

With all National Lottery draws, players have 180 days from the day of the draw to claim their win if they have the winning ticket. Anyone who believes they have the winning ticket for any of the National Lottery draws within the 180-day deadline should call the National Lottery Line on 0845 910 0000.

Anyone concerned about lost or unchecked tickets may like to consider setting up a National Lottery Subscription, playing Lotto Online, via their mobile phone, or using the Sky Active service on digital TV. Numbers can be entered in advance and lucky winners automatically receive a cheque or are notified online if their numbers come up. For further information call 0845 912 5000 or visit www.national-lottery.co.uk.

Notes to Editors:

- Camelot Group plc is the licensed operator of The National Lottery[®] and is committed to raising money for the Good Causes designated by Parliament. Camelot is not responsible for distributing or awarding these funds
- To date, over £18 billion has been raised for Good Causes by The National Lottery, and more than 220,000 individual awards have been made across the UK – the biggest programme of civic and social regeneration since the 19th Century. The National Lottery has given away over £26 billion in prizes and created more than 1,800 millionaires or multi-millionaires since launch in 1994
- Camelot runs one of the most cost-efficient lotteries in the world, with around 5 per cent of total revenue taken in operating costs. At 40 per cent of total sales (28 per cent to Good Causes and 12 per cent in lottery duty to the Government), Camelot returns a higher proportion of lottery revenue back to society than any other lottery operator in the world. National Lottery retailers receive 5 per cent of total revenue in commission, and 50 per cent of sales is paid out to players in prizes
- Camelot is committed to the highest standards in player protection and social responsibility in both the retail and interactive environments. The National Lottery website, Sky Active and Play By Text services have been accredited by GamCare, the UK's national centre for information, advice and practical help regarding the social impact of gambling – while Camelot's approach to game design, test purchasing and retailer vigilance campaigns ensures player protection at retail. Camelot has been ranked among the top 30 UK companies in Business in the Community's 2005 Corporate Responsibility Index, becoming a sector leader in the leisure category
