Hertfordshire Scaffolder Constructs Dream Holiday With National Lottery Scratchcard Win

A scaffolder from Hemel Hempstead in Hertfordshire is planning the perfect summer getaway with his family, after winning the top prize of a dream holiday worth £3,000 on the Summer Money Scratchcard from The National Lottery®.

Clint Payne (33) and Clare Pyneter (32) – who have three children, Lois (10), Casey (9) and Valentina (2) – have already decided to visit Clint's Mum and Dad in Spain with their prize. Clint bought the winning Summer Money scratchcard at Bilton News, Bilton Road, Greenford.

He explained: "I always buy a scratchcard on Fridays and as the sun was shining decided to try the new Summer Money. I was in a café at the time, opposite the newsagents, when I scratched the card and realised I had won – I couldn't believe it.

"I was with all my workmates at the time who all checked it because they thought I was joking. When I told Clare she was really pleased and we decided to go to Spain and visit my parents. It's great to win and we are all really looking forward to our holiday."

Summer Money offers National Lottery players the chance to upgrade their summer – by winning Thomas Cook holidays worth £3,000, or instant cash prizes up to £50,000. Summer Money costs £2 and there are two games to play on each scartchcard. In Game One players need to match the 'Winning Symbol' to any of 'Your Symbols' to win. In Game Two, if 'Your Temperature' is higher than 'Today's Temperature' you win the identified prize for that row.
