Shrewsbury Couple Jet Off With National Lottery Scratchcard Win

A retired couple from Monksmoor in Shrewsbury will be enjoying their first holiday in nine years, after winning the top prize of a dream holiday worth £3,000 on the Summer Money Scratchcard from The National Lottery®.

Wendy (55) and John Dorsett (60) – who have three children, Sharon, John and Stewart – have decided to treat the whole family to a holiday in Cyprus with their prize. Wendy bought the winning scratchcard at Morrisons, Whitchurch Road, Shrewsbury.

Wendy said: “We always play Lotto and if we are feeling lucky, buy a scratchcard. When the new Summer Money game came out we thought we’d try it. We couldn’t believe our eyes when we realised our good fortune. I called my husband John to check the ticket, then called our youngest son Stewart to tell him the good news.”

She added: “The children always say Cyprus is a lovely place and John has always wanted to revisit island. He was stationed there in the 1960’s as part of the United Nations Peacekeeping Force. So it was the obvious choice.”

Summer Money offers National Lottery players the chance to upgrade their summer – by winning Thomas Cook holidays worth £3,000, or instant cash prizes up to £50,000. Summer Money costs £2 and there are two games to play on each scartchcard. In Game One players need to match the ‘Winning Symbol’ to any of ‘Your Symbols’ to win. In Game Two, if ‘Your Temperature’ is higher than ‘Today’s Temperature’ you win the identified prize for that row.
