Mystery Winner In The Hambleton Ward Area Is Missing Out On £110k Lotto Prize

National Lottery players in the Hambleton Ward area of North Yorkshire, covering Bedale, Northallerton, Thirsk and the surrounding area, are being urged to check their old Lotto tickets as someone is sitting on a £110,935 prize and may not even know it.

The search is now on to locate the owner of a winning ticket who matched five main numbers and the bonus ball in the Lotto draw on Saturday 4 March 2006. The winning Lotto numbers for that draw were 1, 16, 22, 32, 33, 44 and the bonus ball was 48. The lucky ticket-holder has until 5.30pm on 31 August 2006 to come forward and make their claim.

If no-one comes forward with the winning ticket before the prize claim deadline, then the prize money, plus all the interest generated, will go to the Good Causes – adding to the £18 billion already raised through sales of lottery tickets over the last 11 years.

A National Lottery spokesperson said: "We are desperate to find this ticket-holder and unite them with their winnings as it will certainly change their lives. They could carry out a range of home improvements, book an amazing luxury holiday this Summer, buy a top of the range car or just go on a fabulous shopping spree.

"We are urging everyone to check their tickets again and look in the pockets of their winter coats, in their wallets, in bags and down the back of the sofa. We have the champagne on ice and our fingers crossed!"

To jog Lotto players' memories, on 4 March 2006, 16 Blocks starring Bruce Willis had just opened at the cinema – while Madonna was topping the charts with Sorry.
