Second Lotto Prize Up For Grabs In Manchester

National Lottery players in the Manchester area are being urged to check their tickets, as a Lotto prize worth a fabulous £215,502 has still not been claimed.

The ticket, which matched five numbers and the bonus ball, was bought for the draw on Saturday, 18 February 2006. The mystery ticket-holder has until 5.30pm on 17 August 2006 to make their claim. The winning Lotto numbers for the draw on 18 February were 9, 23, 32, 35, 36, 40, and the bonus ball, 5.

If no-one comes forward with the winning ticket before the prize claim deadline, then the prize money, plus all the interest generated, will go to the Good Causes – adding to the £18 billion already raised through sales of lottery tickets over the last 11 years.

This is not the only outstanding prize in the City of Manchester area – a £206,818 Lotto prize from the draw on Saturday 12 November 2005, has still not been claimed either. The missing ticket-holder has until 11 May 2006 to come forward with their winning ticket and claim this prize. The winning Lotto numbers on 12 November 2005 were 12, 13, 25, 30, 45, 47, and the bonus ball, 42.

A National Lottery spokesperson said: “This is the second time this year that we have asked National Lottery players in the Manchester area to check their tickets – we are very keen to make sure that both ticket-holders get their winnings. I would again urge all players to check their tickets very carefully, as we are still very hopeful that the winners will come forward in time.”
