Champagne On Ice For Missing Oldham Lotto Winner

National Lottery players in the Oldham area are being urged to check their tickets as a Lotto prize worth a fabulous £66,153 has still not been claimed.

The ticket, which matched five numbers and the bonus ball, was bought for the Lotto draw on Saturday 11 February 2006. The mystery ticket-holder has until 5.30pm on 10 August 2006 to come forward with the winning ticket and make their claim. The winning numbers for the Lotto draw on 11 February were 4, 9, 15, 25, 30, 40 and the bonus number was 42

If no-one comes forward with the winning ticket before the prize claim deadline, then the prize money, plus all the interest generated, will go to the Good Causes – adding to the £18 billion already raised through sales of lottery tickets over the last 11 years.

A National Lottery spokesperson said: “We are desperate to find this lucky ticket-holder and unite them with their winnings as it will certainly change their lives. They could carry out a range of home improvements, take the luxury holiday they have so far only been able to dream of, buy a top-of-the-range car, or simply enjoy a shopping spree.

“We are urging everyone to check their tickets again and look in the pockets of their winter coats, in their wallets, in bags and down the back of the sofa. We have the champagne on ice and our fingers crossed!”
