The Clock Is Ticking For Unclaimed Lotto Prize in Plymouth

Time really is running out for the mystery owner of a Lotto ticket worth £118,149 bought in the Plymouth City area. The mystery ticket-holder now only has until 5.30pm on 4 May 2005 before the prize claim deadline expires.

The Lotto ticket, which matched five numbers and the bonus ball, was bought in the Plymouth City area for the draw on Saturday 5 November 2005. The winning Lotto numbers for the Lotto draw on 5 November were 12, 13, 21, 26, 32, 32 and the bonus number was 17.

If no-one comes forward with the winning ticket before the prize claim deadline, then the prize money, plus all the interest generated, will go to the Good Causes – adding to the £18 billion already raised through sales of lottery tickets over the last 11 years.

This is not the first time an unclaimed prize has been up for grabs in Plymouth. In November 2004 a prize worth £61,655 was not claimed until nearly two months after the draw date.

A Camelot spokesperson said: "Time really is running out for the winner of this prize, but we are still hopeful that someone will come forward at the last minute to claim the money. The draw was on Bonfire Night, so in all the excitement somebody may have put the ticket in an extra safe place, which is why we are advising all players to check and double-check their old tickets again very carefully. This fantastic prize really could make a difference to somebody's life".

To jog Lotto players' memories, on 5 November 2005 Elizabethtown starring Orlando Bloom and Kirsten Dunce had just opened at the cinema, while Westlife were topping the charts with You Raise Me Up. Closer to home Plymouth Hoe was ablaze with colour as Plymouth City Council and the Evening Herald joined together for a spectacular fireworks display. Meanwhile audiences at the Theatre Royal were enjoying a performance by Birmingham Royal Ballet.

With all National Lottery draws, players have 180 days from the day of the draw to claim their win if they have the winning ticket. Anyone who believes they have the winning ticket for any of the National Lottery draws within the 180-day deadline should call the National Lottery Line on 0845 910 0000.
