£73K Up For Grabs In Crewe

An amazing £73,711 Lotto prize has yet to be claimed in the Crewe area and National Lottery players are being urged to check and double-check their tickets for the chance to claim this life-enhancing prize.

The search is now on to locate the owner of the winning ticket who matched five numbers plus the bonus number in the draw on Wednesday 25 October 2006. The winning Lotto numbers on that date were 2, 7, 10, 14, 16, 22 and the bonus ball was 43. The lucky ticket-holder has until 5.30pm on 23 April 2007 to come forward and make their claim.

If no-one comes forward with the winning ticket before the prize claim deadline, then the prize money, plus all the interest generated, will go to the Good Causes – adding to the £19 billion already raised through sales of lottery tickets since the launch of The National Lottery® in November 1994.

A National Lottery spokesperson said: “We’re desperate to find this mystery ticket-holder and unite them with their winnings – this life-enhancing prize could really help to make a few dreams become a reality for someone out there. We’re urging everyone to check their old tickets again, and to look anywhere a missing Lotto ticket could be hiding.

“Try checking in the pockets of clothing, in wallets, bags and down the back of the sofa – someone out there could literally be sitting on a fortune! We have the champagne on ice and our fingers crossed that the lucky winner comes forward to claim their prize in time.”

To jog Lotto players’ memories, on 25 October 2006, Chemical Romance’s Welcome to the Black Parade was dominating the album charts – while Marie Antoinette, starring Kirsten Dunst, had just opened at the cinema.
