The Clock Is Ticking For Unclaimed Lotto Prize in Glasgow

Time really is running out for the missing owner of a Lotto ticket worth £117,345 bought in the Glasgow area. The mystery ticket-holder now only has until 5.30pm tomorrow, Thursday 9 November, before the deadline to come forward to claim this prize expires.

This ticket matched five numbers and the bonus ball in the Lotto draw on Saturday 13 May 2006. The winning Lotto numbers on that date were 3, 15, 21, 22, 36, 47, and the bonus ball was 27. If no-one comes forward with the winning ticket before the prize claim deadline, then the prize money, plus all the interest generated, will go to the Good Causes – adding to the £19 billion already raised through sales of lottery tickets since the launch of The National Lottery® in November 1994.

A National Lottery spokesperson said: “Time really is running out for the winner of this prize, but we are still hopeful that someone will come forward at the last minute to claim the money. We’re urging everyone to check their old tickets again or look anywhere a missing Lotto ticket could be hiding. It could really help to make a few dreams become a reality for someone out there.

To jog Lotto players’ memories, on 13 May 2006, Gnarl’s Barkley was dominating the charts with Crazy – while Prime, starring Uma Thurman and Meryl Streep, had just opened at the cinema. Closer to home Theatre Royal audiences were enjoying a performance from Scottish Opera of Don Giovanni, while Glasgow University beat Edinburgh University in the annual boat race.

With all National Lottery draws, players have 180 days from the day of the draw to claim their win if they have the winning ticket. Anyone who believes they have the winning ticket for any of the National Lottery draws within the 180-day deadline should call the National Lottery Line on 0845 910 0000.
