A Staggering £500,000 Prize Is Up For Grabs For One Lucky Swansea Winner

A lucky winner in the Swansea area is currently sitting on a staggering £500,000 fortune, and players are being urged to check and double check their tickets for the chance of claiming this life-changing prize.

The search is now on to locate the owner of the winning ticket who matched all seven numbers in the Dream Number draw on Saturday 16 September 2006. The winning numbers were 7, 2, 1, 5, 9, 8 and 7. The lucky ticket-holder has until 5.30pm on 15 March 2007 to come forward and make their claim.

If no-one comes forward with the winning ticket before the prize claim deadline, then the prize money, plus all the interest generated, will go to the Good Causes – adding to the £19 billion already raised through sales of lottery tickets since the launch of The National Lottery® in November 1994.

A National Lottery spokesperson said: “We’re desperate to find this mystery ticket-holder and unite them with their winnings – this life-enhancing prize could really help to make a few dreams become a reality for someone out there.

“We’re urging everyone to check their old tickets again or look anywhere a missing Lotto ticket could be hiding. Try checking in the pockets of clothing, in wallets, bags and down the back of the sofa – someone out there could literally be sitting on a fortune! We have the champagne on ice and our fingers crossed that the lucky winner comes forward to claim their prize in time.”

To jog Lotto players’ memories, on 13 September The Sentinel starring Michael Douglas and Eva Longoria was the film to go and see, or you might have been listening to Scissor Sister who were topping the charts with I Don’t Feel Like Dancin’.
