Lotto Prize Unclaimed In Canterbury

An amazing £53,699 Lotto win has yet to be claimed in the Canterbury area, so National Lottery players are being urged to check and double-check their tickets for the chance to claim this life-enhancing prize.

The search is now on to find the owner of the winning ticket, who matched five numbers plus the bonus ball in the Lotto draw on Wednesday 1 August 2007. The winning Lotto numbers on that date were 3, 6, 15, 23, 28, 42, and the bonus ball was 40. The lucky ticket-holder has until 5.30pm on Monday 28 January 2008 to come forward and make their claim.

If no-one comes forward with the winning ticket before the prize claim deadline, then the prize money, plus all the interest it has generated, will go to the Good Causes – adding to the £20 billion already raised through sales of lottery tickets since The National Lottery launched in November 1994.

A National Lottery spokesperson said: “We’re desperate to find this mystery ticket-holder and unite them with their winnings – this amazing prize could really make a difference to somebody’s life. We’re urging everyone to check their old tickets again or look anywhere a missing ticket could be hiding.

“Try checking in the pockets of clothing, in wallets, bags and down the back of the sofa – someone out there could literally be sitting on a fortune! We have the champagne on ice and our fingers crossed that the lucky winner comes forward to claim their win.”

To jog Lotto players’ memories, on 1 August 2007, Timbaland featuring Keri Hilson was at the top of the singles chart with The Way I Are, Paul Potts was top of the album charts with One Chance and the The Simpsons and had just been released at the cinema.
