National Lottery Statement About The Unclaimed Lotto Hotpicks Prize

Camelot Group plc, operator of The National Lottery®, is pleased to announce that a £130,000 prize from the Lotto Hotpicks Match 5 draw on Wednesday 4 July 2007 – which had previously remained outstanding in Lambeth Borough – has now been claimed.

Camelot can confirm that the winning ticket has now been validated but at this time the winner wishes to remain anonymous. Unless the winner of a major National Lottery prize opts to take full publicity and signs an agreement to that effect, no further information can be released about their win.

A National Lottery spokesperson said: “We are delighted that the winner of this prize has now come forward and we hope that they will enjoy their win. It would have been awful if the ticket-holder had missed out on this substantial and life-enhancing amount of money. We would also like to remind all Lotto players to check their tickets every time they play.”
