Missing Lotto Winner ‘Barking’ Not To Claim Millions Unclaimed £2.5 million Lotto jackpot prize up for grabs in Barking

An amazing Lotto jackpot prize of a £2,561,750 has yet to be claimed in the Barking area, and National Lottery players are being urged to check and double-check their tickets for the chance to claim this life-changing prize.

The search is now on to locate the owner of the winning ticket who matched all six numbers in the Lotto draw on Wednesday 7 February 2007. The winning Lotto numbers on that date were 6, 16, 18, 29, 30 and 35. The lucky ticket-holder has until 5.30pm on Monday 6 August 2007 to come forward to make their claim. If no-one comes forward with the winning ticket before the prize claim deadline, then the prize money, plus all the interest it has generated, will go to the Good Causes – adding to the £19 billion already raised through sales of lottery tickets since The National Lottery® launched in November 1994.

A National Lottery spokesperson said: “We’re desperate to find this mystery ticket-holder and unite them with their winnings – this amazing prize could really change somebody’s life forever. We’re urging everyone to check their old tickets again or look anywhere a missing Lotto ticket could be hiding.

“Try checking in the pockets of clothing, in wallets, bags and down the back of the sofa – someone out there could literally be sitting on a fortune! We have the champagne on ice and our fingers crossed that the lucky winner comes forward to claim their win.”

To jog Lotto players’ memories, on the 7 February Dream Girls starring Beyonce Knowles and Oscar winner, Jennifer Hudson, had just opened at the cinema – while Mika was topping the charts with Grace Kelly. Closer to home Barking RUFC fans were still contemplating their 15-38 defeat against Cambridge in National League Division Two, while audiences at the Tricycle Theatre were watching a powerful production of Stereo from Arc Theatre.
