Lotto Prize Remains Unclaimed In Hammersmith & Fulham

An amazing Lotto prize of £128,306 has yet to be claimed in the London Borough of Hammersmith & Fulham, and National Lottery players are being urged to check and double-check their tickets for the chance to claim this life-enhancing prize.

The search is now on to find the owner of the winning ticket, bought in the Hammersmith & Fulham area, who matched five numbers plus the bonus ball in the Lotto draw on Saturday 28 April 2007. The winning numbers on that date were 11, 17, 24, 28, 41 and 47 and the bonus number was 48. The lucky ticket-holder has until 5.30pm on Thursday 25 October 2007 to come forward and make their claim.

If no-one comes forward with the winning ticket before the prize claim deadline, then the prize money, plus all the interest it has generated, will go to the Good Causes – adding to the £20 billion already raised through sales of lottery tickets since The National Lottery® launched in November 1994.

A National Lottery spokesperson said: “We’re desperate to find this mystery ticket-holder and unite them with their winnings – this amazing prize could really make a difference to somebody’s life. We’re urging everyone to check their old tickets again or look anywhere a missing ticket could be hiding.

“Try checking in the pockets of clothing, in wallets, bags and down the back of the sofa – someone out there could literally be sitting on a fortune! We have the champagne on ice and our fingers crossed that the lucky winner comes forward to claim their win.”

To jog Lotto players' memories, on 28 April 2007, the thriller Straightheads starring Gillian Anderson, was showing at cinemas across the country – while Beyonce and Shakira were still topping the charts with Beautiful Liar. Closer to home, theatregoers were enjoying Absolute Beginners at the Lyric Hammersmith, while Fulham FC fans were getting ready for their Premiership away game against London rivals, Arsenal – which they would go on to lose 3-1.

With all National Lottery draws, players have 180 days from the day of the draw to claim their prize if they have the winning ticket. Anyone who believes they have the winning ticket for any of the National Lottery draws within the 180-day deadline should call the National Lottery Line on 0845 910 0000.

Anyone concerned about lost or unchecked tickets may like to consider either setting up a National Lottery Subscription, playing online at www.national-lottery.co.uk, on their mobile phone, or by using the Sky Active service on digital TV. Numbers can be entered in advance and lucky winners are notified online if their numbers come up. For further information call 0845 912 5000 or visit www.national-lottery.co.uk.
