Chesterfield Syndicate Strike It Rich With An Amazing EuroMillions Win

A two member Chesterfield syndicate has scooped an amazing £6,989,367.40 on EuroMillions, after matching five numbers and one Lucky Star in the draw held on Friday 28 September 2007.

Neville Fisher (55), a retired oilfield construction worker shares his win with one other syndicate member, his mother, who because of her age will not be taking publicity.

Neville, who worked as a deep sea diver for many years and is now a full time carer, is busy making exciting plans for his future. A new house, possibly a bungalow, is high on the shopping list but still in the Chesterfield area near to his family and friends. Neville will also be splashing out on a swish new car to replace his Renault, which is fast approaching its MOT.

Neville said: "This win has come right out of the blue. I was at home on Saturday afternoon and thought I should check my ticket. I got a print out of the winning numbers from Barlborough Post Office that very morning. When I realised I had won I was shocked and delighted. I still can't believe the size of the win.

"I've been thinking about swapping my car for a while and in the past I used to drive a Jaguar, they are lovely cars. One of my first buys will be the motoring magazines to bring me up to date with the latest Jaguar models."

Neville bought his winning ticket, which was a Lucky Dip® from Barlborough Post Office. The winning numbers on 28 September were 20, 30, 34, 35, 44 and Lucky Stars 4 and 5.
