Winner of final outstanding £6.9m share of £88m EuroMillions jackpot sought

A staggering EuroMillions jackpot prize of £6,989,367.40 is unclaimed from the County of Devon area, and National Lottery players around the country are being urged to check and double-check their tickets for the chance to claim this life-changing prize.

If the winner of this £6.9m only remaining share of the jackpot in the UK comes forward they will truly be in the Premier League in terms of wealth, having as much money in the bank as Robbie Keane (Tottenham), Phil Neville (Everton) and Jonathan Woodgate (Middlesbrough) – all reputed to be worth around £7m¹.

The winning EuroMillions ticket, which matched the five main numbers and one Lucky Star, is from the £88 million draw on 28 September 2007 - when the jackpot could not roll and had to be won that night. Six tickets holders in the UK each pocketed a cool £6.9m and the winning EuroMillions numbers on that date were 22, 30, 34, 35, 44 and Lucky Stars were 4 and 5. The lucky ticket-holder has until 5.30pm on Wednesday 26 March 2008 to come forward to make their claim.

If no-one comes forward with the winning ticket before the prize claim deadline, then the prize money, plus all the interest it has generated, will go to the Good Causes – adding to the £20 billion already raised through sales of lottery tickets since The National Lottery® launched in November 1994.

The £88m EuroMillions draw on Friday 28 September has already changed the life of a number of publicity winners including:

- Neville Fisher from Chesterfield. The retired oilfield construction worker vowed to use his win to look after his mother.
- The 6 strong caravan loving Prance family syndicate from Cardiff pocketed just over £1.1m each.
- 32 syndicate members from Adams Morey, a trucking company, each took home over £218k.

Just as staggering as the amount is the interest set to be earned when the winner claims their prize. With the daily interest amounting to £1063² and 180 days worth resulting in a bank balance bigger by £191,298 the ticket holder is missing out as time ticks by.

A National Lottery spokesperson said: “We’re desperate to unite the ticket holder with their winnings – this amazing prize could really make a difference to somebody’s life. We’re urging everyone to check their old tickets again or look anywhere a missing ticket could be hiding for the chance to live a millionaire lifestyle.

“Try checking in the pockets of clothing, in wallets, bags and down the back of the sofa – someone out there could literally be sitting on a fortune! We have the champagne on ice and our fingers crossed that this EuroMillions winner comes forward!”

To jog EuroMillions players’ memories, on Friday 28 September 2007, Run, Fat Boy, Run starring Simon Pegg, was showing at cinemas across the country, while Sean Kingston topped the singles chart with Beautiful Girls.
