Goole Couple Raise A Glass To Thunderball Jackpot Win!

A Goole couple are celebrating after scooping the £250,000 Thunderball jackpot in the draw on Saturday 29 September 2007.

The win could not come at a better time for Adam Martin (41) and his wife Teresa (32) as they have recently had twin girls Hannah and Laura and can now build an extension on their home. The couple are also planning to invest some of the money and have a well earned holiday.

Adam was at his work, Guardian Glass, when Teresa called him to tell him the exciting news. She had just received a phone call from her mother, who had recognised the couple's regular numbers.

Adam said: "When Teresa called and told me we had won I thought it was a wind-up. In fact I still find the win hard to believe. It is an incredible feeling. With the twins, we now have four children, so space is becoming a big issue. Now thanks to the win we can now build an extension as well as putting something aside for the future.

"We are also planning a trip to Scotland. Teresa has sponsored a dolphin at a sanctuary for a few years but we have never actually been able to go and see it. But now we will be able to visit the sanctuary and enjoy a family holiday!"

Adam and Teresa's winning Thunderball ticket, which was a selection of their regular numbers, was bought at Chappelow News on Westfield Avenue in Goole.
