Truck Firm Syndicate On The Road To Riches!

A 32-strong syndicate which is based at commercial vehicle distributor, Adams Morey in Redbridge, Southampton is celebrating driving off with a £6,989,637.40 EuroMillions fortune after matching five numbers and one Lucky Star in the draw held on Friday 28 September 2007.

The syndicate members have each won £218,426.16 and are now making plans for how to spend their win with shopping lists including; new cars, holidays, paying off mortgages and DIY. Head of the syndicate, Callum Neale (25) who works as an administrator is a performance car enthusiast and, plans to purchase his dream car, a Nissan 350z.

Callum found out that the syndicate had won on Saturday afternoon when he went into a store to check the ticket. After the store manager put the ticket into the machine he told Callum to guard the ticket with his life and get home as fast as he could.

Callum said: "This is the first time we had played EuroMillions and we're thrilled that we did! We decided to play after seeing the £88million EuroMillions TV advertisement on the Thursday night. I felt lucky at the time so we bought some Lucky Dip® tickets for the draw.

"I was in complete shock when I realised we had won. As soon it was confirmed that we had winning numbers, I went and bought a fire-proof safe. I was terrified of losing the ticket. It was amazing when I went into work to tell the rest of the syndicate. There was a roar of excitement– the whole canteen shook!"
