Time Running Out For Missing Winner

The clock is now ticking for a mystery local lottery winner in the Blaenau Gwent and Merthyr Tydfil areas, who only has a few days left to claim an outstanding EuroMillions prize of £163,855.90

The search is on to find the owner of the winning ticket, who matched the five main numbers in the EuroMillions draw on Friday 16 March 2007. National Lottery players are being urged to check and double-check their tickets for the chance to claim this life-enhancing prize in time. The winning numbers on that date were: 4, 14, 31, 45, 49. The lucky ticket-holder has until 5.30pm on Wednesday 12 September 2007 to come forward and make their claim.

If no-one comes forward with the winning ticket before the prize claim deadline, then the prize money, plus all the interest it has generated, will go to the Good Causes – adding to the £20 billion already raised through sales of lottery tickets since The National Lottery launched in November 1994.

EuroMillions has created a spate of big UK winners recently including Scottish postal worker, Angela Kelly, from East Kilbride, who made National Lottery history by becoming the biggest ever UK winner – scooping an amazing £35.4 million jackpot on 10 August. This was followed by another UK winner, who has chosen to remain anonymous, who scooped an incredible £26.5 million in the draw on 31 August.

A National Lottery spokesperson said: “Time really is running out for the winner of this prize, but we are still hopeful that someone will come forward at the last minute to claim the money and join the other UK EuroMillions winners. We’re urging everyone to check their old tickets again or look anywhere a missing EuroMillions ticket could be hiding. This life-enhancing prize could really help to make a few dreams become a reality for someone out there.”
