Unclaimed Lotto Prize In Hamilton & East Kilbride

A Lotto prize worth £116,806 is yet to be claimed in the Hamilton and East Kilbride area, and National Lottery players are being urged to check and double-check their tickets for the chance to claim this life-enhancing prize.

The search is now on to find the owner of the winning Lotto ticket, bought in the Hamilton and East Kilbride area, who matched five numbers plus the bonus ball on Saturday 5 April 2008. The winning Lotto numbers on that date were 7, 23, 30, 41, 45, 49 and the bonus ball was 2. The lucky ticket-holder has until 5.30pm on Thursday 2 October 2008 to come forward to make their claim.

If no-one comes forward with the winning ticket before the prize claim deadline, then the prize money, plus all the interest it has generated, will go to the Good Causes – adding to the £20 billion already raised through sales of lottery tickets since The National Lottery launched in November 1994.

A National Lottery spokesperson said: “This area is already home to the UK’s biggest ever lottery winner, Angela Kelly, so we’re hoping some of her good luck will rub off. We’re desperate to find this mystery ticket-holder and unite them with their winnings – this amazing prize could really make a difference to somebody’s life. We’re urging everyone to check their old tickets again or look anywhere a missing ticket could be hiding.

“Try checking in the pockets of clothing, in wallets, bags and down the back of the sofa – someone out there could literally be sitting on a fortune! We have the champagne on ice and our fingers crossed that the lucky winner comes forward to claim their win.”

To jog Lotto players’ memories, on Saturday 5 April 2008, 27 Dresses was showing at cinemas across the country, Duffy topped the album chart with Rockferry and Estelle featuring Kayne West topped the singles chart with American Boy.
