Time Is Running Out For Missing King's Lynn Winner

The clock is now ticking for a mystery local lottery winner in the King's Lynn area who only has one month left to claim an outstanding Lotto jackpot prize of £962,302.

The search is still on to find the owner of the winning ticket, who matched all six numbers in the Lotto draw on Saturday 20 October 2007. With just a month to go, National Lottery players are being urged to check and double-check their tickets for the chance to claim this life-changing prize in time. The winning Lotto numbers on that date were 4, 15, 25, 27, 33, 40 and the bonus ball was 20. The lucky ticket-holder has until 5.30pm on Thursday 17 April 2008 to come forward and make their claim.

If no-one comes forward with the winning ticket before the prize claim deadline, then the prize money, plus all the interest it has generated, will go to the Good Causes – adding to the £20 billion already raised through sales of lottery tickets since The National Lottery launched in November 1994.

A National Lottery spokesperson said: "Time really is running out for the winner of this jackpot prize, but we are still hopeful that someone will come forward at the last minute to claim the money and join the other major Lotto winners across the UK.

"We're urging everyone to check their old tickets again or look anywhere a missing Lotto ticket could be hiding. This life-changing prize could really help to make a few dreams become a reality for someone out there."

Notes to Editors:

- Camelot Group plc is the licensed operator of The National Lottery and is committed to raising money for the Good Causes designated by Parliament. Camelot is not responsible for distributing or awarding these funds
- To date, over £20 billion has been raised for the Good Causes by The National Lottery, and more than 280,000 individual awards have been made across the UK – the biggest programme of civic and social regeneration since the 19th Century. The National Lottery has given away over £29 billion in prizes and created more than 2,000 millionaires or multi-millionaires since launch in 1994
- Camelot runs one of the most cost-efficient lotteries in the world, with around 5% of total revenue taken in operating costs. At 40% of total sales (28% to the Good Causes and 12% in lottery duty to the Government), Camelot returns a higher proportion of lottery revenue back to society than any other lottery operator in the world. National Lottery retailers receive 5% of total revenue in commission, and 50% of sales is paid out to players in prizes
- Camelot is committed to the highest standards in player protection and social responsibility in both the retail and interactive environments. The National Lottery website, Sky Active and Play By Text services have been accredited by GamCare, the UK's national centre for information, advice and practical help regarding the social impact of gambling – while Camelot's approach to game design, test purchasing and retailer vigilance campaigns ensures player protection at retail. Camelot is ranked first in the leisure sector in Business in the Community's 2006 Corporate Responsibility Index
